GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Fees and Payment Arrangements – Semester I, 2022/2023

As part of its response to the financial challenges occasioned by the Covid-19 pandemic, the Mico University College has not increased its fees for the 2022/2023 academic year. The fees fall into two categories, namely tuition and miscellaneous. Miscellaneous fees are charged to cover the cost of providing certain services. These fees at the graduate level cover items such as accident insurance, copyright payments to Jamcopy, accreditation costs, maintenance costs, administrative costs, identification cards, faculty shirts, Student Guild fees etc. While we deliver classes online, the costs normally associated with having students on the campus are incurred in maintaining the online platforms. Tuition fees cover the cost for the orientation course, foundation course(s) and core courses. Pre-requisite costs are calculated separately.

This document provides information about fees and payment options for Jamaican nationals, CARICOM nationals and international students.
